

The diagram illustrates the components of a function signature: `long fact (int n);`. The components are labeled as follows:

- return value type: `long`
- function name: `fact`
- input parameters: `(int n)`, where `int` is the type name and `n` is the parameter name.